

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. It emphasizes the need for a systematic approach to record-keeping, such as using a ledger or accounting software, to ensure that all financial data is properly documented and organized.

The second part of the paper focuses on the importance of regular reconciliation of accounts. It explains how reconciliation helps to identify and correct errors, such as double entries or missing transactions, and ensures that the company's financial statements are accurate and reliable.

The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining proper documentation for all financial transactions. It highlights the need for receipts, invoices, and other supporting documents to be properly filed and organized, as they are essential for auditing and tax purposes.

The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all assets and liabilities. It explains how this helps to ensure that the company's balance sheet is accurate and provides a clear picture of its financial position.

The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all income and expenses. It explains how this helps to ensure that the company's profit and loss statement is accurate and provides a clear picture of its financial performance.

The sixth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all cash flows. It explains how this helps to ensure that the company's cash flow statement is accurate and provides a clear picture of its liquidity.

The seventh part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all taxes paid and owed. It explains how this helps to ensure that the company's tax returns are accurate and provides a clear picture of its tax obligations.

The eighth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all financial ratios and metrics. It explains how this helps to ensure that the company's financial statements are accurate and provides a clear picture of its financial health.

The ninth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all financial forecasts and budgets. It explains how this helps to ensure that the company's financial statements are accurate and provides a clear picture of its future financial prospects.

The tenth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all financial audits and reviews. It explains how this helps to ensure that the company's financial statements are accurate and provides a clear picture of its financial performance.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the cultural context of the research. It highlights the need for researchers to be sensitive to the values and beliefs of the communities they are studying. This is particularly important in the field of education, where cultural differences can significantly impact learning outcomes. The paper then moves on to discuss the challenges of conducting research in diverse cultural settings. It notes that researchers often face difficulties in establishing rapport with participants and in interpreting their responses. To address these challenges, the paper suggests several strategies, including the use of local researchers and the development of culturally appropriate research instruments. The final part of the paper discusses the importance of ethical considerations in cross-cultural research. It emphasizes the need for researchers to obtain informed consent from participants and to ensure that their research does not cause harm to the communities they are studying.

Since 1857, Spokane has been fortunate to have school boards who have given their time and energy to maintain fine schools where youngsters have opportunity commensurate with their desire to achieve.

Spokane School Board members serve without any reward other than the satisfaction that they are contributing to the success and happiness of succeeding generations.

North Central Fortunate To Have an Active PTA

North Central was fortunate to have an active PTA. Through the year they held two meetings a month to keep abreast of current activities. Their purpose was to bring the home and school closer together, so the students could receive greater benefits from their education.

Judge Willard Roe speaks to the PTA about school dropouts.

Vice-Principal Edward Gill

Principal John Rodkey Bears Many Responsibilities

Congratulations to our staff and to our students for an especially fine school year. Perhaps our achievements are not as obvious as we should like them to be. However, the courtesy of our students, enthusiasm of our community and the dedication of our staff provide cause for gratitude.

As the school year draws to a close we want to wish Mr. Gill, who is leaving our family circle, success in his new ventures. His loyal services to North Central will not soon be forgotten.

We wish for each student a happy summer. Bon voyage to students who have been graduated. We will miss you, but we extend to you our sincere hope for happiness and success.

Students Will Miss Mr. Gill

Vice-Principal and Deans Aid in School Supervision

Many duties fall on the shoulders of Vice-Principal Edward Gill. Whether working on disciplinary problems or more pleasant assignments, he may always be seen working diligently in his office. The students of North Central will miss Mr. Gill. His kindness and services as vice-principal will long be remembered in the halls of NC.

All students of North Central owe thanks to their advisers, Kenneth Mhyre and Patricia Butterfield. Their hours were long and filled, trying to help a student or better North Central.

After more than 10 years of faithful service, Herman Wooddel retired from his position of head custodian at North Central. The students will remember him for the many hours of service he devoted to both school and extra duties.

Cafeteria, Office and Custodial Staffs All Important to School Functioning

Academic and activity records of every North Central student are kept by the office staff. Job applicants and college students turn to the office workers for grade transcripts and recommendations for prospective employers and for colleges.

Keeping the school clean is a big job for the janitorial staff. They work many hours to achieve North Central's spotless appearance.

Attractive, well-balanced meals and various snacks are served daily in the school cafeteria. Here also during the preschool hours, one finds students studying or visiting.

Business Courses Lead to Career Opportunities

Commercial courses are among the most immediately useful subjects offered in high school.

Courses in business education are helpful in laying a foundation for a business career, and they also provide useful information for personal life.

Through business education many careers are open to students. Some require further training, others do not. In preparation for careers in business two year courses in typing, shorthand and bookkeeping are offered. Office practice and distributive education are one year courses.

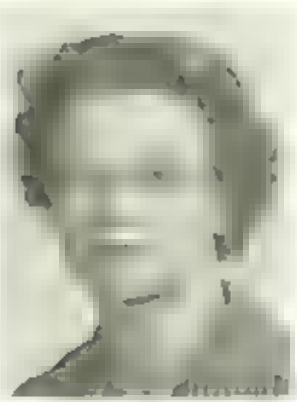

Mrs. Helen Stockdale instructs Jeanette LaPlante and Larry Wieber while they arrange an attractive display for their Distributive Education class.

Pronunciation and Conversation Principal Part of Foreign Language Study

Tape recordings, records and films aid in pronunciation and conversation and arouse interest in the country and its people.

Through foreign languages, students learn about the people and customs of other lands.

Learning vocabulary and grammar is a major part of the curriculum. The students also learn about the country's culture and acquire writing and reading ability in these classes.

New to North Central this year Mrs. Orosia M. Hugo coaches her freshman Spanish class.

Mrs. Oscarson teaches her second year French students with books and tape recordings.

Homemaking and Industrial Arts Help Students Prepare for the Future

Library and Study Hall Also Fill a Student Need

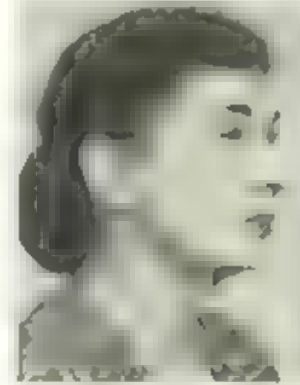

The fundamentals of homemaking are essential, as every girl will be a homemaker. Basic courses are given to freshmen and additional classes are offered to interested girls.

The North Central library is a valuable teaching center where students find a quiet atmosphere conducive to study and research.

Boys who are interested in any of the trades find industrial arts courses very valuable. Mechanical drawing is essential for prospective engineers.

Mastery of the English language is the first step to success. Our English program has been developed with this in mind. The addition of the English five team-teaching program this year as a nonexperimental class is a great step toward this goal.

All students must take the first six semesters of English. In addition, students who have completed six semesters of English may enroll in Senior Composition and Senior Literature. The courses are practically musts for students who will attend college. Even though a student may not go on to college, the ability to speak and write well is essential in today's highly competitive society.

Main objectives of the English Department are to help every student learn to think logically and to aid him in both his oral and written expression of thought.

This is accomplished in various stages. Freshmen concentrate on grammar, Sophomores on classic literature and more of the fundamentals of grammar. Juniors take a thorough study of American literature in order to acquaint them with an important part of their American Heritage, and here they begin to use the tools they learned in previous years. Senior English acquaints the students with classic literature in preparation for college.

Math Courses Prepare Students for College

One of the chief characteristics of the present time is that the human mind is asserting itself largely through the power of mathematics. Colleges are raising the mathematical requirements in nearly all departments of instruction. Students should now be more vigorously "disposed to learn" than ever before.

High school mathematics is undergoing extensive modernization. New methods and teaching skills are being used each year to prepare North Central students for college mathematics.

By enrolling in courses in algebra, geometry, trigonometry and analysis, students may become thoroughly versed in quantitative fundamentals.

Study of Science Seeks Answers to Man's Eternal Questions

Science ever changing challenges each student to seek the answers to the eternal questions it poses. The scientific method of thought provides a means by which these questions may be answered.

In the past few years inventions have been made which our forefathers would have labeled "magic" but which have become a common place in our lives. Every day new advances are being made. The field of investigation which was opened up through nuclear research is only a beginning. We are far from the solution to the mysteries of the universe. There is still a need to search for the answers. Every high school student is given the chance to join the search.

Our social studies curriculum was designed to prepare students to become better citizens in today's troubled world. With the knowledge of the past and present, it was hoped that the students would use the information to the betterment of themselves and America.

Through a knowledge of economic, social and political systems, we are able to understand the unrest in various parts of the world caused by infiltration of World Communism and its threat to America's society.

in memory

Classes are oriented in all four years to stress the benefits of a capitalistic and democratic society. Contemporary World Problems study is particularly beneficial to seniors because it helps to develop their awareness of our political and social life. Students learned of the uniqueness of America's government, its equality of rights and opportunities available to the citizen, in preparation to first assuming the duties of a life in our society.

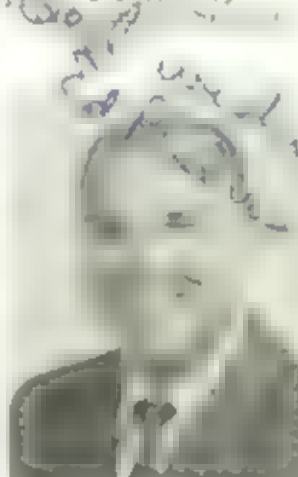

To help the students to know and appreciate their heritage and what America should mean to them, the social studies department has a well-balanced program including: World, Northwest and United States History; Economics, Social Psychology, Current Problems and Geography.

With three years of social studies required for graduation it is hoped that students will be better prepared to meet the challenges of a competitive society. The purpose of history study is to learn from the past and apply this knowledge to future problems, and these studies are intended to stimulate the interest of the students in the happenings of today.

Valentine's Day Is Honored by a Dance

Saint Valentine's Day was a suitable occasion for the Associated Student Body to hold their mid-winter date dance which they called Embrassez-Moi. Couples danced to the music of the Marauders in the atmosphere of the Blue Room. The dance was the first ASB-sponsored date dance of the year, put on by the officers and the help of the Senate.

The girls wore dressy dresses and heels and the boys wore white shirts and ties.

World Mourns Death

November 22, 1963, will always be remembered as a day of tragedy and a day of great sorrow for Americans and the world over. John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States, was shot down by a sniper's bullets in Dallas, Texas. All the world mourned this beloved man who strongly fought for what he thought was right.

His death proved to the world, though, that the country he loved and fought so hard to maintain must and will go on even in the face of a crisis.

Lyndon B. Johnson was sworn into the White House within a few hours of John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Amazed and shocked students with the first news of the late President's death between classes.

In cooperation with the other senior homeroom teachers, Mr. Wallace Russell led the graduating class of '64 through an exciting year filled with activity.

Homeroom teachers assist students during the four years of the students' high school career, giving encouragement and words of advice. Helping students plan their four-year schedule and advising them on college or job preparatory courses is not the least of a homeroom teachers' duties. He also keeps a complete file of the students' high-school records, achievements and activities which is often used for future references. A great responsibility lies directly on the shoulders of the homeroom teacher, for it is up to him to encourage students under his direction to participate to their full ability in the school's activity and scholastic schedule.

Many Activities Fill Seniors' Last Week

Senior Dress-Up is the final event of each graduation year. On Thursday, May 28, the seniors, wearing their best, attended classes for the last time. Following on Friday, May 29, was the Senior Breakfast held in the banquet room of the Ridpath Hotel. At this last activity which they attended as the Class of '64, the seniors enjoyed a special program and a wonderful meal while visiting with each other. After the breakfast the seniors went to the Coliseum to practice for Commencement which followed on Sunday, May 31.

Honors Program Initiated at NC

The Class of '64 saw a new organization initiated at North Central. The Honor Student Program was organized and designed to give special privileges and opportunities to a number of qualified students selected on a basis of outstanding scholastic achievement, good personal conduct, significant participation in school activities, reliability and a good attendance record.

Its purpose is to provide such students with broadening experiences from school and community resources and from a less restricted program which gives them more individual responsibility for their own personal development.

Some planned activities of the group included a trip to the Mennonite settlement, a visit to a Buddhist Temple and a trip to Grand Coulee Dam.

Dr. James Miller, guest speaker from the Spokane Chamber of Commerce chats with Carla Jo Lawrence (left) and Marie Jenkins after a meeting.

The students in the laboratory are working on their projects.

A student is giving a presentation to the class.

Three students are working on their project.

Seen inspecting the senior bulletin board are seniors Royce Cuneo, Richard Felton, Vickie Garcia, Arthur Grove and Terry Jones.

"O" days left for Seniors. After four years of waiting for graduation, John Morris, Pat Morris, John Morris and Richard Wentz make with merriment and joy.

The Class of '64 was organized late in November with the election of the Senior Class Officers. Committees were chosen with Mr. Russell and senior homeroom teachers as advisers.

Early in January cards and announcements were chosen and ordered through the homeroom representatives. In February committees began meeting and planning senior events.

The first big event was the Senior Con on May 7. It featured a variety of talent and centered around a television theme. May 8 the production was presented for all senior parents and was followed by a reception.

The highlight of the year was the Senior Prom, held in the Empire Room of the Ridpath Hotel on May 15.

Annual Senior Dress-Up Day was held May 28, preceded by the breakfast held at the Ridpath. Climaxing the year's events, commencement exercises took place at the Coliseum Sunday afternoon, May 31.

What Are Your Future Plans?

Making a vocational notebook is a major assignment for the junior English student. This assignment enables him to obtain information on what he would like for his lifetime work.

Although this assignment not only helps the student choose his career, it also helps show him how to use the library properly. This factor alone is very important in any high school student's life.

Coming Up in the World

Being a bit more brave, the sophomore is a little tougher, and a year wiser than the poor bewildered freshman that he was a year ago. These additional qualities help him through the most difficult of his four high school years.

After completing his sophomore year, the student looks forward to becoming an upperclassman. But being a sophomore, he doesn't realize that the pressures he now has will grow in proportion, although he gets nearer to the goal of most high-school students—graduation.

I Wonder if Bed-Bugs Count

In September of this year, all sophomore biology students were required to have a display of 50 bugs. Upon the closing date for this project, Walter Spangenberg had a superb collection of butterflies and grasshoppers. Then all he had to do was prepare the chocolate.

People who have not had to capture bugs may think that this is absurd; however it serves a dual purpose: First to help students become aware of different kinds of insects in the area and secondly to give materials to classify all insects.

Notes, news, nonsense and rumors fly in the halls of North Central. Once in awhile even schoolwork is mentioned.

Although school is for academic learning, the student also learns such things as how to get along with his fellow man, how to understand himself better, and assorted social graces.

The student that participates fully in school programs such as after-school sports, clubs, Girls League and the ASB, improve his chances for a successful future life.

Students Find Caesar Tragedy Timely

Unfortunately man's idea that murder does away with systems of government or that wrongs are righted has not yet disappeared.

Sophomores studying Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" found a parallel in the assassination of our 35th President.

Caesar's passing was noted with oration and political upheaval. Newspapers all over the world carried the sad story of the death of John F. Kennedy, but a smooth transition was made to the new administration.

Linking the past with the present is Mrs. Red as she reads of Caesar's Tragedy.

What a difference three years make. Seemingly to typify the freshman admiration for seniors, Lynda Pharness and Mickey Nyreen gaze with awe on a senior, Steve Williamson.

Freshmen Characterized by Chaos Versus Confusion

Bewildered Paulette Roven is looking around for help as she tries to find a seat in the chaos and confusion of the cafeteria tables.

Being thoroughly confused and bewildered, are characteristics of the freshman class, during the first part of its high school life.

In the cafeteria, which is known as organized disorder, freshman students find themselves quite alone and friendless. A typical scene in the cafeteria is of a freshman girl picking up assorted objects which have been spilled from her purse, the result of a boyish prank.

Hopeful Freshmen

Looking forward to their four years of high school is one of many characteristics of a freshman student. The freshman year is very important, because it determines the student's later success in high school life.

The homeroom teacher boosts the confidence of the freshmen and prepares him for further enjoyment of school life. As the year wears on, the student finds that he can often rely on his own experiences, thus helping himself and becoming more useful.

ASB Promotes School Spirit

School spirit was the main motivation and goal of both Associated Student Body presidents and the result was evident in the various activities offered.

Beginning the year in a friendly spirit was Get-Acquainted Week September 9 through 13. Each day featured a get acquainted theme and Friday of that week was the Get-Acquainted Mixer.

Two recreational nights were held at the school, October 1 and 2, which featured indoor recreational facilities for the students. The first was for freshmen and sophomores and the second was for juniors and seniors.

Jacinta Caballero was crowned queen of the Football Festival at the largest mixer North Central has ever sponsored on October 25. Preparation began weeks in advance with the selection, by the football team, of ten candidates for queen which was narrowed down to three by a vote of the student body and the football team. Princesses were Nikki Charlton and Jean Bonser.

Carnival time brought fun for all as school clubs participated, each operating a booth or concession the evening of November 8.

NC Students Visit Exchange School

The annual Christmas convocation was held December 20, followed by a mixer January 10, which ended the fall semester activities.

The beginning of a new semester marked the beginning of creation of several Associated Student Body standing committees which enabled many more students to participate in activities.

St. Valentine's Day was the occasion for the ASB dance held February 14 in the Old Gym. Music was provided by the Maracors. Confectionary nights were held again March 9 and 10.

An exchange program of ASB officers and students was staged between Queen Anne High School in Seattle and North Central this year. North Central's students, Diane Saruwatari, Rick DeWitt, Jack Reynolds and Chris Olson visited Queen Anne and observed various methods of leadership and government in the school with the idea of possibly improving NC's ASB.

Money-raising projects were held at times during the year. One of these was the collecting of coffee can lids in March. North Central was in competition with Ferris High School.

Another project was "Pennies for Hams," a contest between the boys and the girls. Pennies were collected and hams were purchased for needy families to receive on Easter.

Two additional all-school mixers brought the school year to a close. These were held March 20 and May 1.

Every Wednesday morning the House of Representatives, made up of delegates from each homeroom, is presided over by the ASB officers.

Senators Ratify Constitution

Forming the most important legislative branch of the Associated Student Body, the senators were elected by their fellow classmates. The senators met once a week with the ASB officers to discuss and vote upon important issues.

One of the main responsibilities of the senators is to ratify the constitutions of new clubs before they can begin operations as an organization of North Central.

Girl of the Month Award Initiated

North Central's Girls' League began the year's busy schedule with the Big and Little Sister party. This year's Big Sister award went to Millie Jenkins. Next on the agenda was the Get Acquainted Party for Central Council members. The officers were able to meet the council and form a closer tie with the girls.

The fall style show "Fall into Fashion" was presented in October, and featured fall clothing sewn by North Central's girls. The style show was combined with the fall awards convocation. Also, Nancy Malov, the first Girl of the Month, was chosen in October. Girls were selected for this honor by the special services which they had performed for North Central.

Cotton Day Mixer Planned

A big item in this year's activities was the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, which featured a concessions area called "Sadie Sity." General chairman of the Sadie celebration was Karen King.

As a special project this year the League officers were to make dresses on particular Girls' League days.

The Spring Style Show was presented March 25 and clothes sewn by the girls were featured. Next came Cotton Day and the Cotton Day Mixer, April 1, which was held in the Old Gym.

Later in the spring was the Mother Daughter Tea for all girls and their mothers were invited. The Teachers' Tea was arranged in such a manner that teachers were able to enjoy refreshments throughout the day during their free period.

Under the supervision of Margaret Nistad, Sharon Nustad, Orosia McHugo and Helen Owen the Girls' League remained an extremely active part of North Central's student body.

Tamarack Staff Appointed

Long before school started in the fall, the Tamarack staff had met and begun the involved process of putting out a yearbook.

One of their gatherings was a beach party held during the month of August at Newman Lake. Canoeing, sailboating and swimming were enjoyed.

Early on the first day of school the staff met for announcement of positions. Then yearbooks filled with advice from past years' staffs, were handed out so the staff of '64 could get an idea of the work which lay ahead.

Shortly after school had started, the art editors, Stan Taft and Carol Fide had decided upon the design and color of the yearbook cover with the help of Barbara Eddy, Art Department head.

Staff's Motto: To Each His Own

In the middle of November a campaign for selling the books was held. Members of the beginning journalism class plus the annual staff made up the crew which scoured the hallways of North Central for $1.50, the price of the book. Week ends were spent, besides after school hours, combing Spokane's businesses for advertisements. These advertisements were very important as they paid for a good part of the book's cost.

Each section was under an editor who gathered the material to gether, planned the layout, wrote copy and scheduled the necessary pictures.

Karen King, editor-in-chief, worked from the early hour of "O" period to 5 and 5:30 every night. She unreservedly sympathized with the staff's troubles but at the same time demanded a job to be done.

Faculty representative and adviser, Carol Newett, gave her spare time freely to the production of the annual. She made many trips out to the print shop and engravers, advised, encouraged and laughed with the members of the staff.

Marlene Nelson headed the Faculty and Administration section with the help of Faye Oakes, one of the two juniors on the staff.

Collecting all the seniors' pictures and pasting them onto large cardboard mats was the job of Marie Taschereau and Sharon Chapman, senior editors.

Banquet Held for Journalists

After listing all the ads which were received and fitting them into a suitable layout pattern, advertising manager Carol Griffith, turned the lists over to the business managers, Karen Baker and Jeanette LaPlante. They sent out bills and kept count of incoming money.

Determining lines of copy and sizing identifications were the jobs of Cheryl DeBolt, copy editor. Rebecca Johnson completed the Productions section, which involved the Music and Drama Departments, besides rereading all copy.

Carolyn Hiskland, editor of Indexing, typed an identification card for each student in school. This was to insure the correct page numbers beside every student's name in the index.

Recording a history of school life events for the Tamarack was School Life editor Jacinta Caballero. Helping her were the staff photographers, Bob Gausman, Ron McRae, Rick DeWitt and Carla Jo Lawrence, photography coordinator.

News Staff Completes Busy Year

NC news staff has the responsibility of publishing the North Central News. It is their job to plan page lay-outs, schedule pictures, read galley and page proofs, and meet the deadlines. This year the News was published every two weeks, making a total of nine to ten issues each semester. Early on Friday mornings, home-room news representatives obtain the newspapers from the circulation staff at the distribution office.

Bob Geiger
Reporter-at-Large

The staff worked under the watchful eyes and leadership of Joseph Tremblay, adviser. Under his guidance the North Central News has captured top national honors yearly from the National Scholastic Press Association and Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Looking over the shoulders of Mary Lou Overhauser, editor-in-chief, are Karen Beck, associate editor; Sue Reida, news editor, and Cathy Funseth, feature editor.

Staff Functions Efficiently Under Editors

All news staff members are required to first take one semester of beginning journalism. After completing the course they become upon appointment of Mr. Tremblay members of the News staff.

The advertising staff is responsible for obtaining ads for the paper from local business concerns.

Mailing copies of the News to advertisers, administrators and exchange schools is the duty of the mailing staff. Members of this staff are taken from the beginning journalism group.

Concert Band Participates in Preparing for the Fall and Spring concerts kept the concert band busy this year. Also on their schedule was marching in Spokane's beautiful Torchlight Parade and participating in the Eastern Washington Music Educators' Association Contest.

Besides wearing new uniforms, the band moved into a new building last fall. Special rooms for storing uniforms, filing music and protecting instruments were provided as well as a large practice room. An Indian mural, done by North Central students, will decorate the outside of the music building. Plans were formulated also for the band members to name the structure at the north end of the teachers' parking lot.

One of the main projects of the band members this year was their annual chocolate bar sale. This year the sale's purpose was to earn money for new instruments. A contest was formed to boost the sales awarding first, second and third prizes to the band members who sold the most candy.

Accompanied by the Red Feathers, Color Girls, Color Guard, Drum Majors and Majorettes, the band also participated in half-time activities at the football and basketball games. Marching in the Apple Blossom Parade in Wenatchee was the highlight of their spring activities. The Marching Band is under the direction of A. G. Tiemann.

Majorettes Participate in Shrine Game

Performing for football half-time periods kept the majorettes busy during the fall season. Wearing bright red-and-white costumes, the majorettes twirled for the Shrine game as well. Their major performance for the spring semester was marching in Spokane's Lilac Parade.

Drum Majors Lead Band

Leading their band in school songs was the main job of the drum majors during the fall season this year. Adding color to the marching units the drum majors led the way in half-time stunts at the football games. Together with the majorettes these students led the North Central Band, Red Feathers and Color Girls through the streets of Spokane for the beautiful Lilac Parade. Under the direction of A. G. Tiemann, their plumed shakos signify their rank.

'The Hasty Heart'; All-School Play

"The Hasty Heart" takes place in a British General Hospital somewhere within the Southeast Asia command. It is about a Scotch sergeant, Lachlen McLachlen, who is wounded and loses one of his kidneys. Because of uranium poison he will soon lose the use of his other kidney and thus he will die.

As the play progresses we see how the sergeant learns he will die and how he reacts to the news. He is placed in a ward with five other men each one of a different race and nationality.

Knowing he must spend his last days with these men, he tried to make friends with them. His adjustments to the other men patients are aided by his nurse. After considerable adjustment problems, Lachlen McLachlen spends his last days with his buddies.

"The Hasty Heart" is a comedy drama of three acts and was written by John Patrick.

Two performances were given on December 8, 1968. The performances were under the direction of Albert Mattus.

UNTERMEYER

Students Mourn Death of James G. Simmons

This year North Central experienced deep sorrow for the loss of a fine man. James Gordon Simmons, choral director, passed away in his home at the age of 81.

Mr. Simmons grew up and graduated from high school in Shelton, Washington. Desiring to further his education, Mr. Simmons attended Washington State University where he earned his bachelor and master degrees in music. After graduating, Mr. Simmons taught at the Wenatchee High School, Wenatchee, Washington, and directed the Men's Appolo Choir there.

Memorial services were held March 6 at North Central. Two numbers were sung by the choir and Teepee Lighters and the announcement was made by John P. Rodkey of the establishment of a memorial fund. A memorial service was also held that evening in the Hazen & Jaeger Funeral Home.

James Gordon Simmons
 932 - 1964

A great and gifted man has been called from our midst, but as life continues, the students of North Central will long remember Mr. Simmons for his sincere dedication to music, his deep concern for the musical education of his students, and the spirit and the tremendous memories which will forever inspire us all.

While directing the choir, Mr. Simmons sings along

Coach Edwin Kretz Works Hard as Rookie Coach

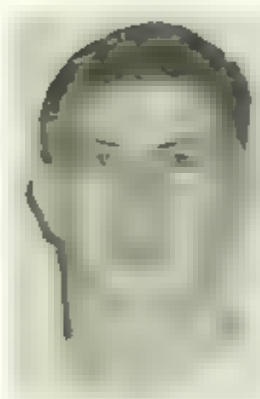

After serving on the staff for eight years Edwin Kretz became head coach, replacing Dave Holmes. He initiated a new program whose by-word was "Be tough. Tougher than anyone else." He also changed the team's offensive strategy.

New on the coaching scene was Leslie Hogan, and Walter Spangenberg completed the staff of varsity football coaches.

As a result of their supervision Connie Burnett was placed on the Spokane Daily Chronicle's first team and the Spokesman-Review's second team. Art Arnevik made the Chronicle's second team. After this showing on the All-City list, the coaches are hopeful that North Central can raise championship teams in the future.

This was a year of achievement for many of North Central's players. Connie Burnett tied the city's pass-reception record of 20 catches. Before Bill Diedrick was sidelined for the season because of an injury, he set several NC passing records. When given the try for points after touchdown, Bill Nichols did not miss a conversion try all year.

At the awards banquet the following players were recognized: Captains were Connie Burnett, Rod Lindberg and Steve Williamson. The tackling award went to Rod Lindberg; the blocking award to Art Arnevik, lineman of the year was Tom Griffith. The Apache award was won by Rod Lindberg and Larry Brunette. Ralph Jones was given the Inspirational award. Thus recognition was given to the outstanding players for the things they did to improve the team.

Diedrick Breaks Ankle

In city league football play during the 1963 season, North Central played each school twice and placed fourth in the overall standings at the end of the season.

The opening game of the season was with Shadle Park. Against previously last-place Shadle, the Indians won.

In the second game, a promising quarterback Bill Diedrick, was injured and consequently lost for the remainder of the season. Sandy Coopridier was called on to finish the season at that position.

Shrine Game Draws Crowd

When we took on our old rival Lewis and Clark, Lady Luck seemed to desert the Indians and we lost both games. This brought our overall record through the fifty years of league play between North Central and Lewis and Clark to a tie score.

Highlight of this year's football games was the Shrine Game, featuring North Central and John Rogers, which was televised. There were many exciting moments, a notable one being when Steve Williamson made a spectacular 40-yard touchdown run only to have it called back because of a penalty. Even though we lost, the game drew a large crowd and it helped to raise funds for the continued operation of the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children.

B Squad Has Winning Season

Rookie coaches Blaine Bennett and Richard Hannan led the B team to a winning season. Mack Ketron, first team quarterback was lost in the first game with a broken wrist and was replaced by Doug Sanders for the remainder of the season.

Doug Clukey and Ron Jewell were the only members of the B squad to receive the coveted Apache for their helmet. Rick Giampietre, the captain, was also named the most inspirational player.

Freshman Team Building for Future

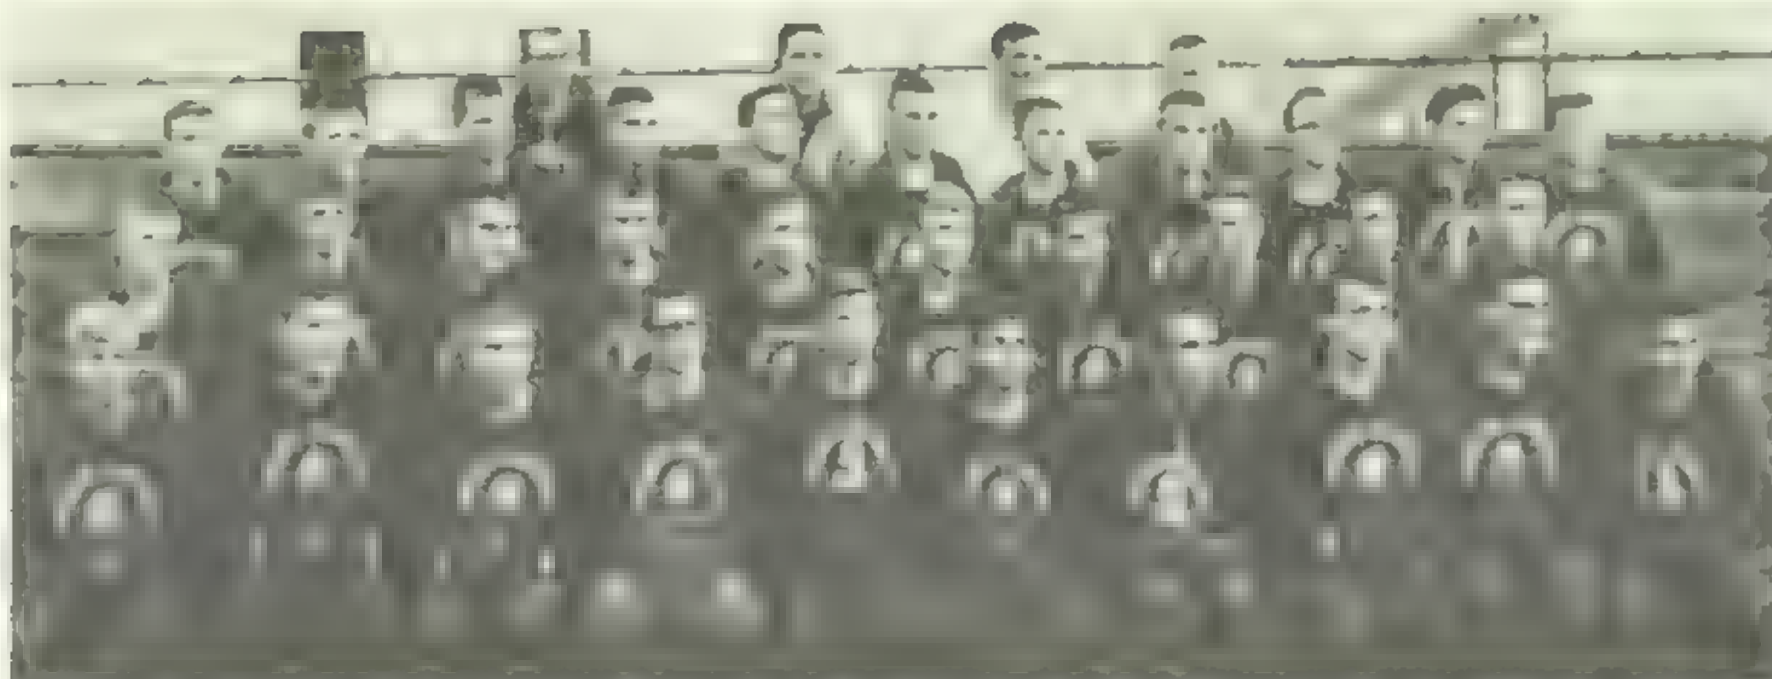

During the freshman football season, the fundamentals of the games are taught to the young, up and coming ball players. After coaching the varsity football squad for 13 years Coach William Diedrick took over the freshman football team and has led them to four out of five winning seasons.

Losses to Rogers and Gonzaga spoiled the freshman team's chances for a better record, but looked impressive in wins over Ferris 25-6, and Lewis and Clark 16-13. They were the only freshman football squad in the city to score on city champion Gonzaga Prep.

There were at least a half dozen varsity prospects on the team this year according to Coach William Diedrick. The team had a 4-2 season record this year, playing two practice games with Medical Lake and Mead, and winning them both. "Forty-five boys turned out and thirty finished the season earning the right to their freshman numerals," stated Coach William Diedrick.

Cross-Country: Fourth in City, Fifth in State

Miles of hard work helped to develop the cross-country team this year. Coach Gene Lister, with Monte Moore and Fred Black as team captains, pushed his team to fourth place in the city and fifth place in state competition.

Leading the North Central Cross-Country team in All-City competition, Fred Black placed fourth and Monte Moore followed with tenth place. A new record of 8:59.5 was set by Gerry Lindgren of Rogers.

Leading North Central to fifth place in state was Fred Black, Monte Moore, Ben Goins, Gary Florin and Ron Bogenreif.

A Friend to All

Coach Gerald Stannard

Mr. Gerald Stannard was a man dedicated to education and to the development of boys. He was a man more interested in the youth he trained than the games he won.

Larry Heinz, captain, said this of Coach Stannard: "To the guys on the team, Coach Stannard wasn't like a coach, he was like a father."

He was a man devoted to good sportsmanship, an example few people can equal.

Coach Charles Long, who took over for Coach when he became ill, had this to say:

"In the team I took over, he had instilled to the utmost, a love of the game—playing the game as it should be played, never stretching the rules."

How the NC coaching staff felt was expressed by Edwin Kretz: "We have been most fortunate to have had Gerry as our athletic director."

He was one of the finest men North Central has ever known and belongs to its long heritage of splendid teachers. As part of the North Central scene, we'll always remember "Coach" as being "like a father."

University High Enters City League

A new school, University High, entered the city basketball league, joining the seven schools who had previously competed in the league.

In loop play this year North Central was able to beat only last place Gonzaga but several close scores indicated the quality of the games that were played.

This year's basketball captain was Larry Fuzzy Heinz who was picked in February. High point man on the team was Don Matson. The coaches this year were Coach Jerry Stannard and assistant Coach Charles Long.

B Squad Basketball Graduates Team Members to Varsity

In the final B-squad basketball standings the B hoopsters finished in last place with a 2-16 league record. Coach Charles Long and Coach Kenneth Hagen had high praise for the B's fine work.

Coach Charles Long, new to North Central's basketball scene, led the team most of the year. On February 3, he moved up to the varsity because of Coach Gerald Stannard's illness. Coach Charles Long was replaced by Kenneth Hagen, who resumed his coaching duties from the previous year.

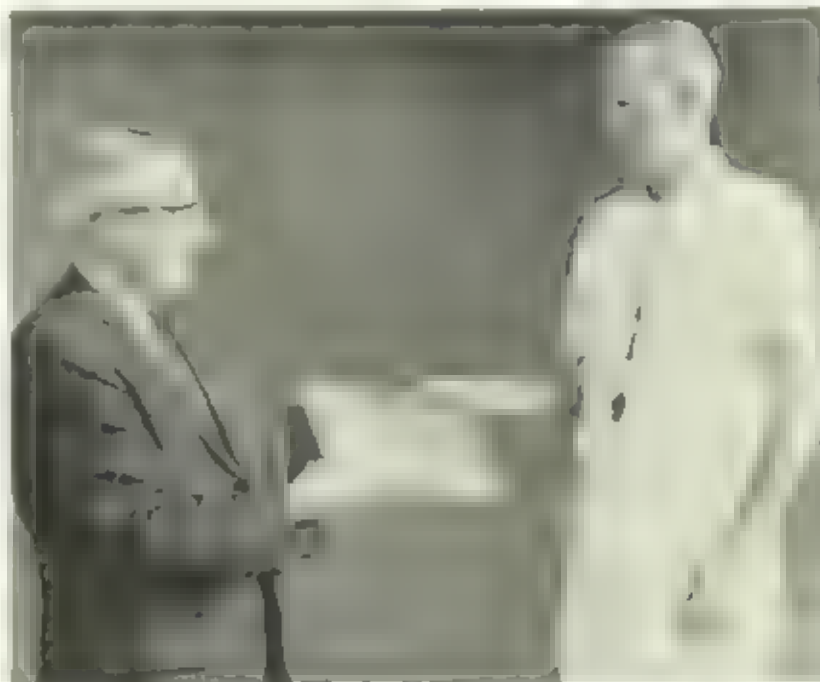

At the annual winter sports banquet in March the B squad was honored, along with the other winter sport teams. B-squad letters went to Hank Green, Ken Grimm, Bob Johnson, Mike Johnson, Sam Lerch, Russ Oslund, Jack Rizzuto and Chuck Wilkerson. Basketball inlays went to Gary Bursch, Dennis DeBill, Ron Jewell, Wes Johnson, Greg Kolbet, Mike Magers and Tom Wold.

Coach Charles Long pointed out that throughout the season the Indians lacked shooting ability. He said that even with the team's lack of height it gets enough rebounds, and if it starts scoring it will be tough.

Frosh Basketball Captures Tie For First Place in Competition

Winding up the season with a 6-2 record, the Frosh team finished the year in a tie for first place in league competition.

Another of the new coaches on the North Central sports scene is Richard Hannan, who is a North Central graduate. During his high school career, Coach Hannan lettered twice in basketball and captained the 1958-59 squad. He was later selected to the All-City and the All-State basketball teams.

The first five North Central games were won handily by the Frosh; the biggest margin being 15 points over Rogers and Ferris. The Indians then dropped two close games in the second round of play to Lewis and Clark and Rogers. They came up with a final win over Ferris 50-41, to end the season on a winning note.

Cheerleaders Display New Uniforms

This year brought a complete uniform change for both football and basketball seasons. In football, the girls wore black sweaters with red neck trim, red pleated skirts and black socks with red shoes. For basketball, white blouses, red vests and red and-white pleated skirts were worn.

North Central Cheerleaders were in charge of the annual all-city Cheerleading Clinic. Songleaders from other city schools met at North Central to exchange ideas about cheering. Our songleaders also arranged parties with cheerleaders from Lewis and Clark and John Rogers High Schools in order to promote friendly relationships.

The head cheerleader for the football season was Connie Kringle; for basketball, Bonnie Kringle; for the spring sports, Denise Perkins.

Cheerleading chairmen appear in the uniforms of the season which each led. Connie Kringle, football chairman; Denise Perkins, spring sports chairman; and Bonnie Kringle, basketball chairman.

Red Feathers Show NC Spirit

When the powerful Injun' Tribe went to war, the loyal Red Feather squaws repeatedly encouraged the braves on to victory.

Red Feathers, under the direction of Lucile Lill, has been an honor marching unit of girls showing how much their school means to them.

Leading the Red Feathers for fall activities are Dixie Houk, secretary, Karen King, treasurer, Barbara Hobbs, historian, and Vicki Lamb and Bonnie Pasicznyk, sergeants at arms.

Showing enthusiasm at all sport events were the sophomore Color Girls in their red and black skirts and sweaters. These girls attended all football and basketball games including many wrestling and spring sport events.

This group, organized for the purpose of encouraging school spirit, has tryouts at the end of every year. All those wishing to join the sophomore Color Girl group were invited to try out. The girls were chosen by their marching ability, grade point average and citizenship. Julie Stanley was advising the group and its activities.

The freshman Color Girls showed exceptional school spirit during their first year at North Central. Although they were new to the school and its traditions, they learned the songs and cheers and supported their school extremely well.

Fryouts were held at the latter part of the previous year and toward the end of this year's first semester. This gave plenty of time for the girls to reserve their new uniforms and accessories for the next semester. Performing in sports, parades and other important events was the highlight for the girls this year.

PE Teachers' Goal Is Physical Fitness

Leading girls in all dynamic sports this year was a team of three teachers. Lucile Lill was the department head, while Julie Stanley and Myrna Leichner assisted her in fulfilling the responsibility of teaching physical fitness in education.

Along with their everyday classes of sport activities and health, they were also advisers of the marching units. Lucile Lill was kept extremely busy as adviser for Red Feathers. She attended all the group's meetings and special functions directed the half-time stunts and supervised their marching exercises in preparation for spring parades. Julie Stanley was advising the sophomore Color Girls with Myrna Leichner who was counseling the freshman Color Girls.

Color Guards Increased

Choosing the Color Guards this year was accomplished by a new system. One girl of each class in Red Feathers and Color Girls was chosen on marching ability, grade point average and general appearance. They are under the direction of Lucile Lill and A. G. Tiemann. The girls wore their group uniforms while the flag bearers, chosen by A. G. Tiemann from the band, wore their band uniforms.

Third Row: Mary Maxfield, Diane Scott, Tammy Marston, Verna Richards, Karen Baker, Chris Wren, Bette Peters, Karen Keavy, Chris Sanders.

Basketball

Good sportsmanship was emphasized in girls' after-school basketball. Practice periods lasted from 3 o'clock to 4:30 p.m. twice a week. Junior and senior girls met Wednesday; freshmen and sophomore girls met Monday. Mixed teams were sent to Rogers High School for a basketball sports day.

Spring Sports

Track, softball, golf and tennis were all a part of the sport activities involved with the coming of spring. Classes, held before and after school, enabled all interested girls to participate. Track was started at the beginning early every morning at 7 o'clock. Girls ran sixteen laps around the gym, jumped hurdles and practiced the shot put.

Tennis

Practicing each week seemed to pay off for the tennis team at the end of the fall season. The girls finished the term by tying for second place with West Valley. The team, practicing on new courts for their spring season, participated in city league tournaments along with the boys tennis team.

Golf Team Finishes Third

Endless hours and hard work compensated the girls' golf team when they placed third in the fall city league. Playing against other city schools and participating in the all-city and mixed two ball tournaments were a part of the busy golf schedule this year.

GOLF—First Row: Pam Checki, Pat Smyth, Kay Materna, Becky Stone, Elaine Berris, Marys Graf, Sharon Chapman. Second Row: Sharon Stretch, Judy Atwood, Cheryl DeBolt, Cindy Meranda, Deborah Steidl, Danna Cheek, Sandra Douglass, Chris Wren, Julie Stanley.

Ready with their skates to leave for the Coliseum are the skaters dressed in their sports' attire. In the first column (top to bottom) they are: Debra Hall, Myrna Moore and Pat Decker. Second column: Marlene Dunphy, Gay Cooper, Pat Smyth and Janet Kallberg.

In one of their arduous formations are synchronized swimmers Judy Edlin, Pat Cotter, Carol A. tenburg and Sherrie Marston.

Ice Skating

During the winter months the girls varsity tennis and golf teams are offered the chance to continue their busy schedule. They are given an opportunity to participate in ice skating, gaining poise and grace at the Coliseum.

Swimming

Swimming, a voluntary after school sport, is offered to all girls. Gracefulness, skill and balance is taught to them by Julie Stanley, which enables them to become synchronized swimmers.

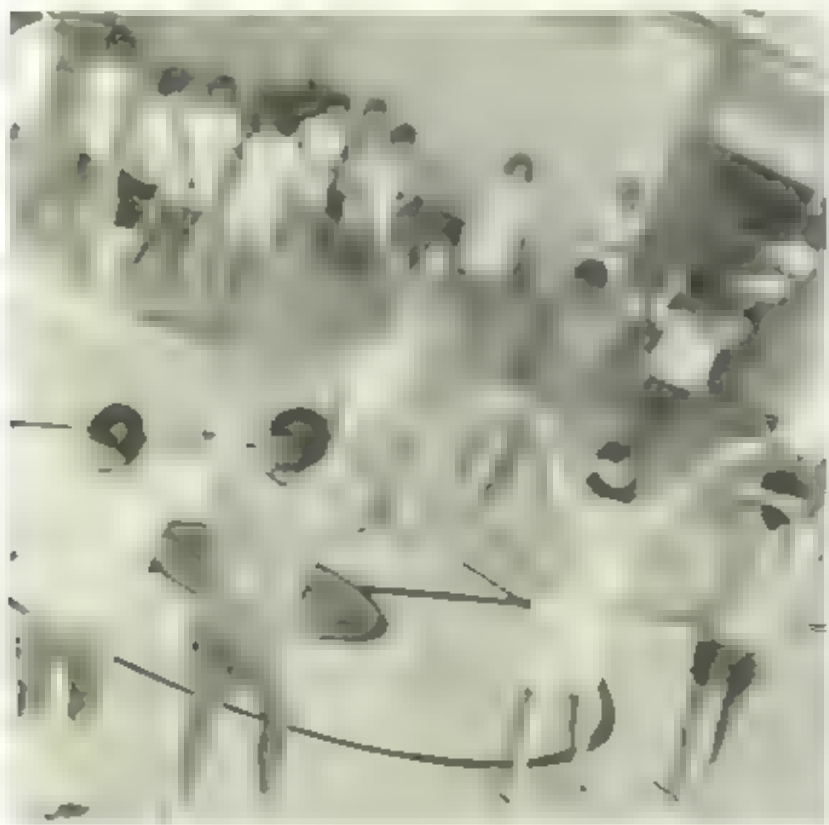

Lyann Mo'am and Eian Walter illustrate bowling techniques during practice at North Bow.

Gymnastics

A new physical endurance sport entered North Central this year under the direction of Myrna Leichner. Many boys and girls prepared and showed their skills at open house for all physical education students, teachers and parents.

Working on a routine in Modern Dance are, first row Lynette Torrisi, Judy Sacco, Carol McMullen and Jacinta Cabalero. Second row Marissa Nelson, Gloria Rohner and Kerry Semco.

Bowling

Bowling, the great national sport, has taken North Central by storm. Eager participants from freshmen to seniors go to North Bowl every Thursday after school to try their skill. The standings of the boys and girls from league competition was posted every week on the Bowling Activities board.

Judy Portrey, Karen Kennedy, Barbara Saunders, Lynda Kennedy and Patricia Jones perform some of the stunts and formations they have learned.

Modern Dance

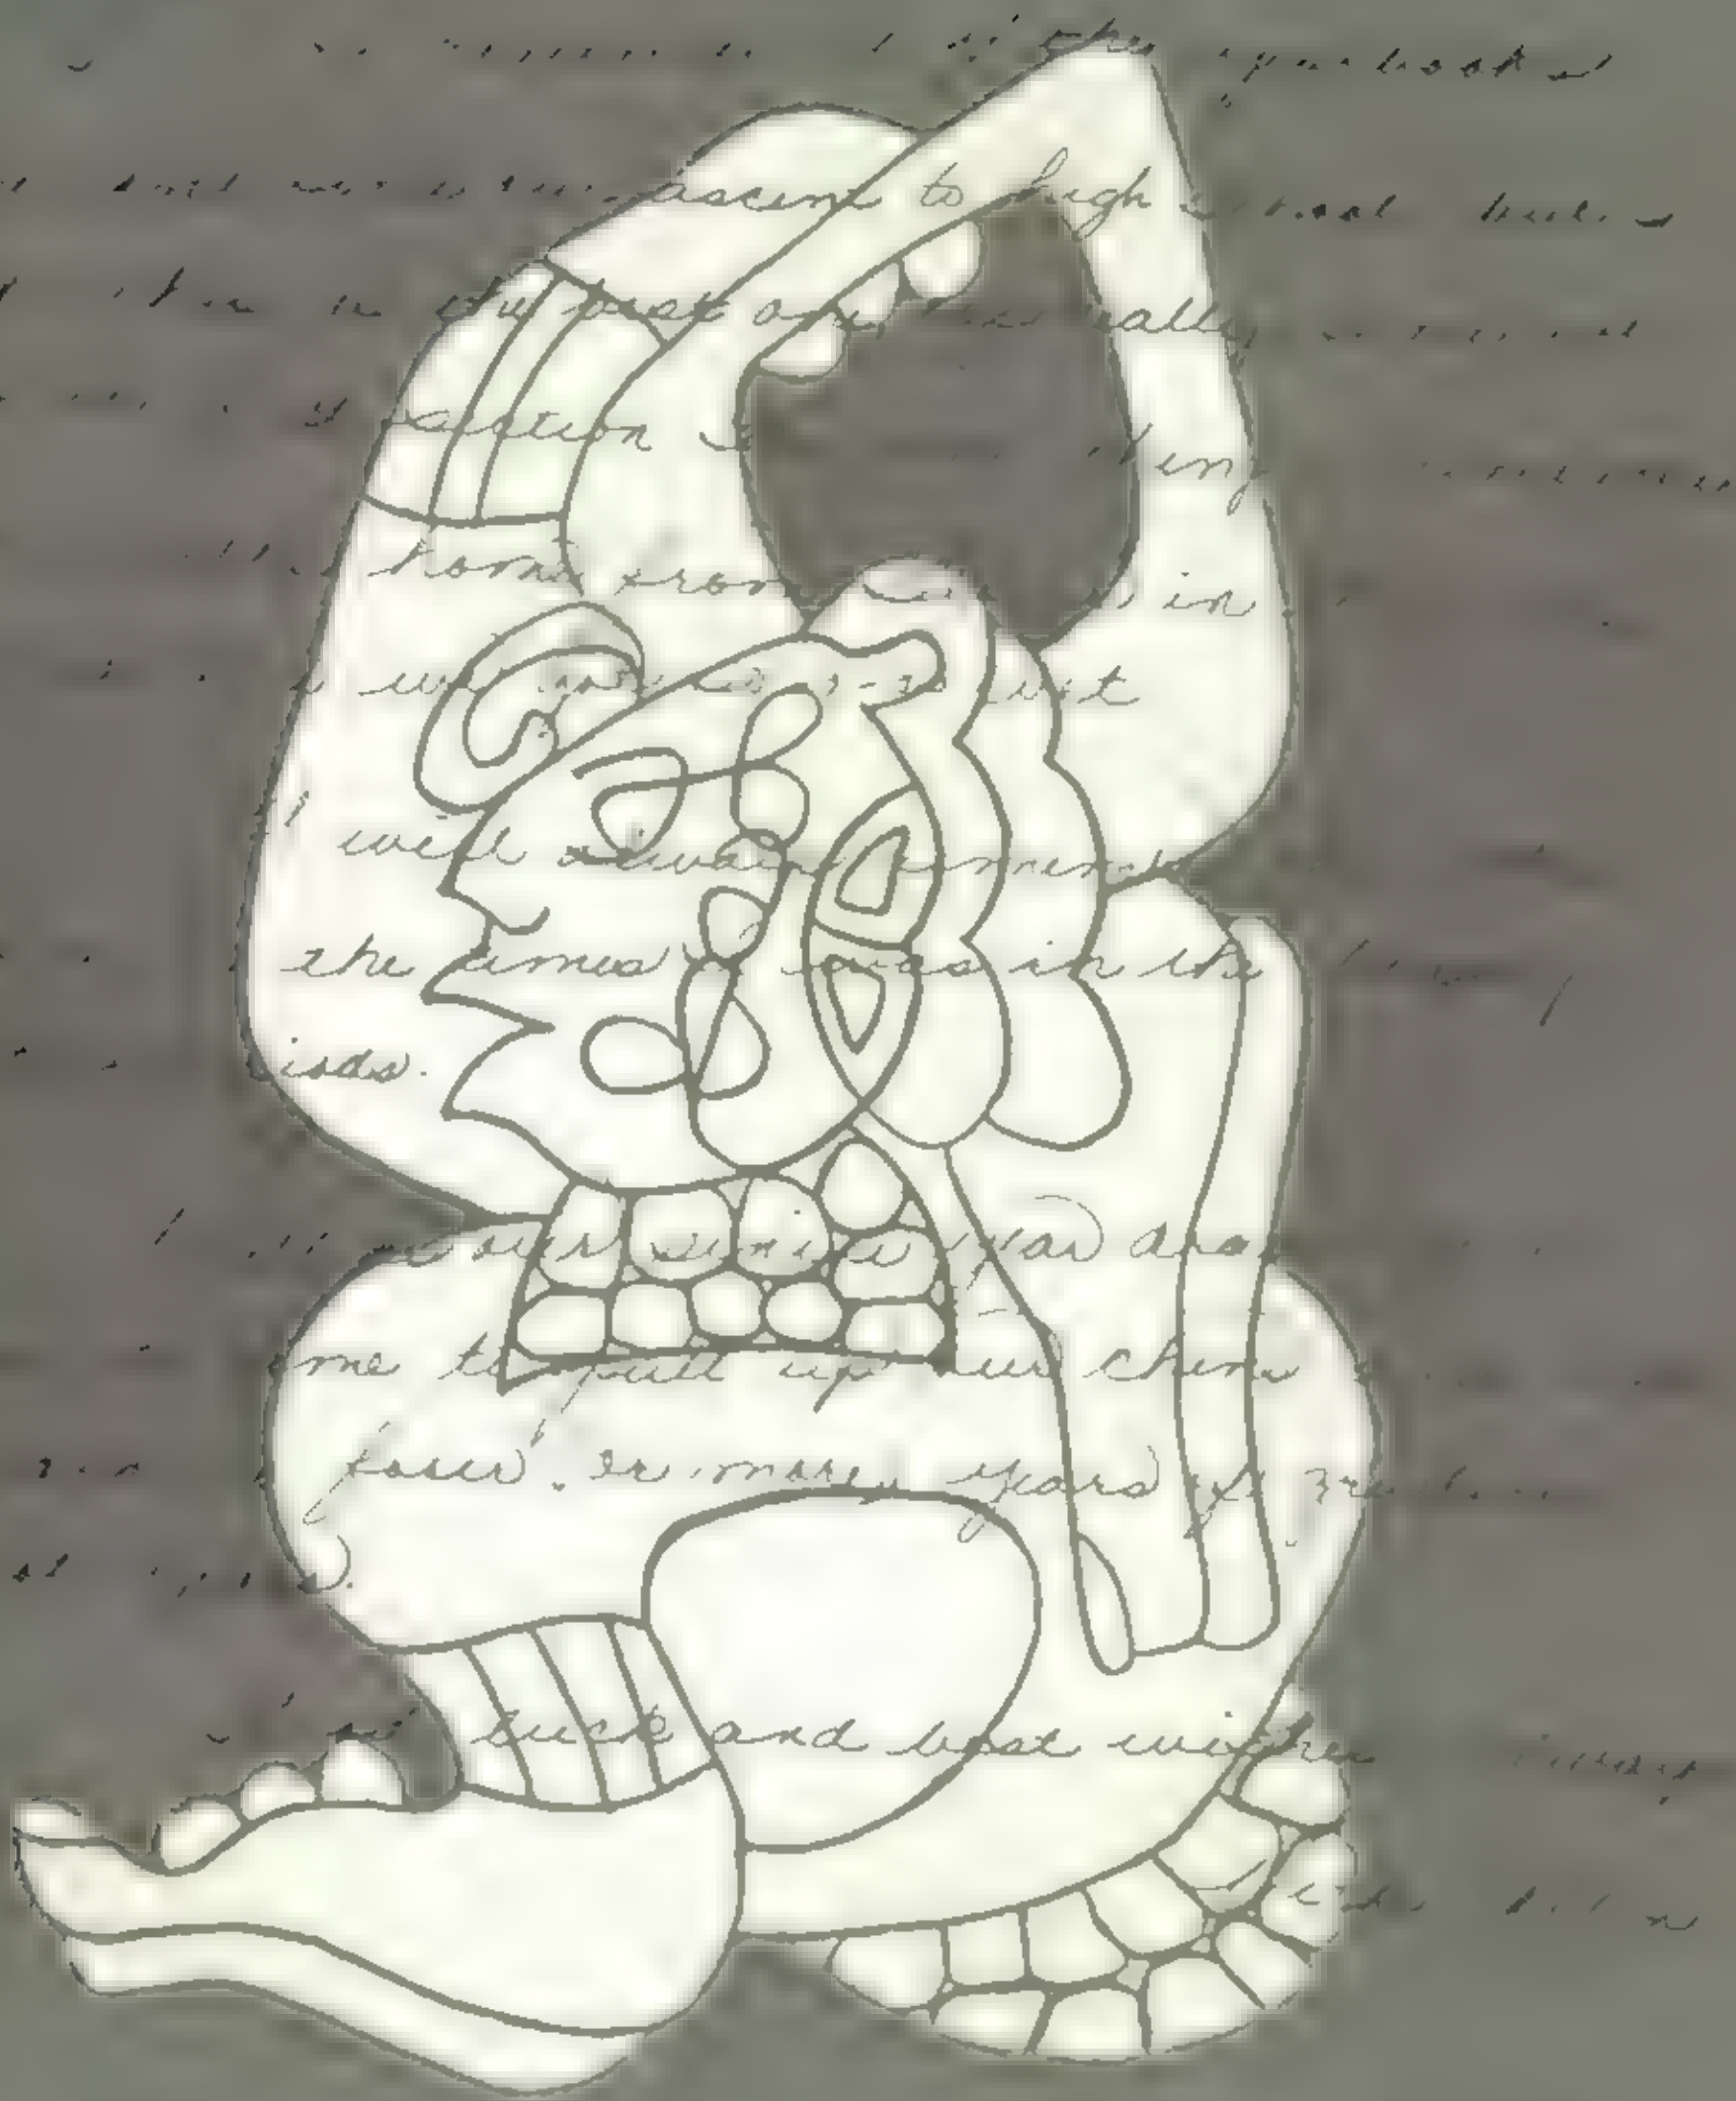

Being graceful is just one of the attributes to be gained from Modern Dance. Creating and performing their own interpretations teaches initiative as well. These girls performed at PTA, open house, school events and meetings. Because of the training acquired here, these girls have gained poise which will be an asset for them in future years.

WED TO
JUDY BOLDEN

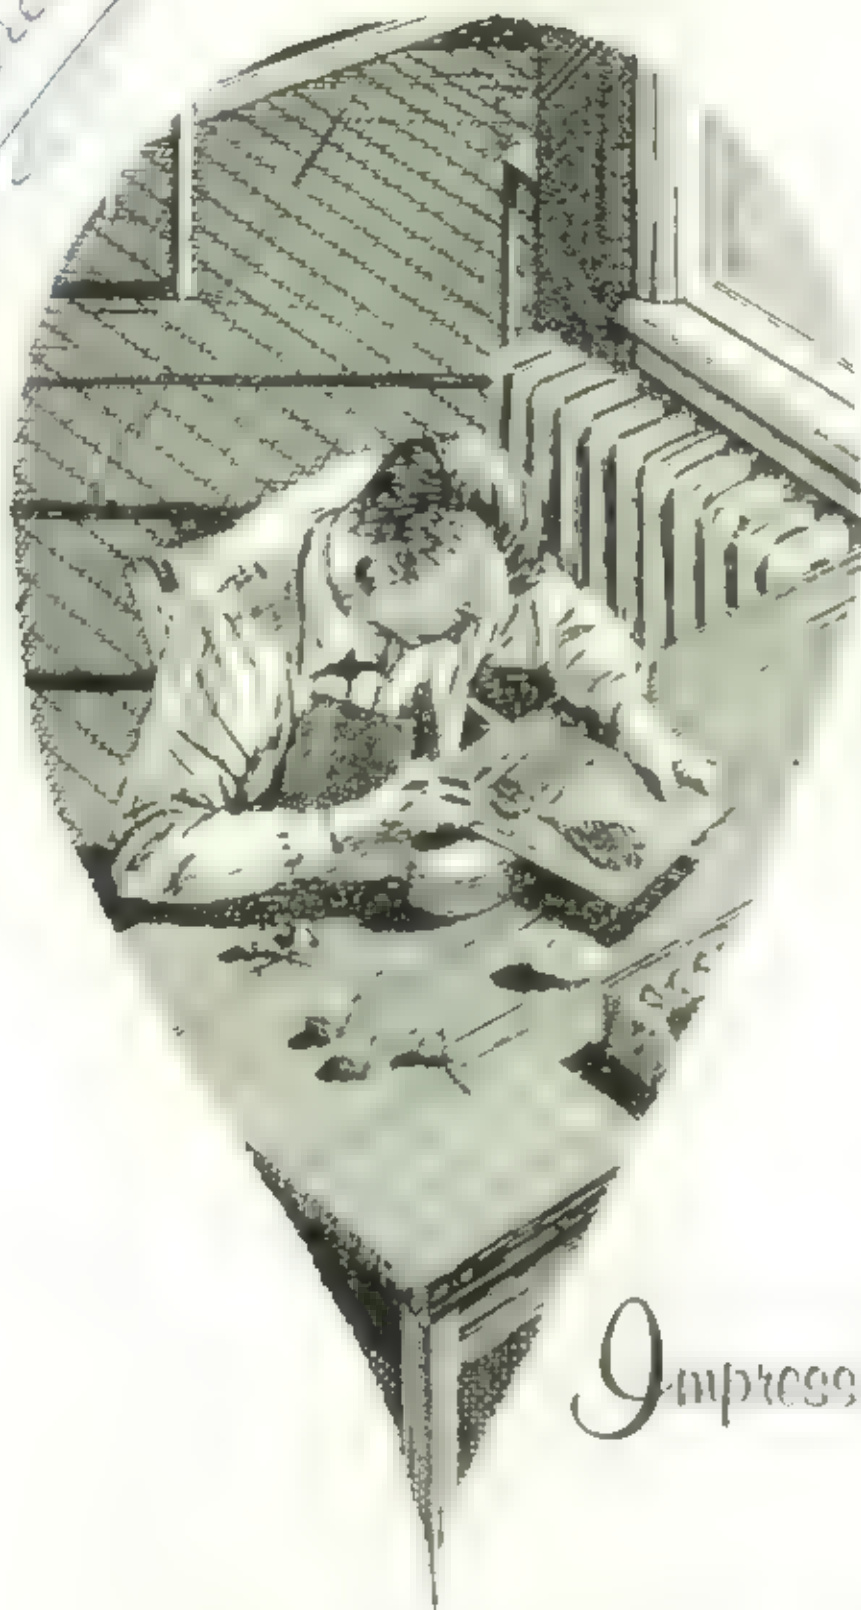

I have been thinking
you have said for the future
you will be the one to lead in the future. I am not sure if we could have had you classroom together. I think you were who leads you were a class but I want to see his people you the same class period for me. What we without discrimination are really wonder, it passes into like such a life
I am sure another life, all go to different places but the memory of his great deeds lives on forever. I am sure why God is so abundant to us
I am sure you are the one to lead
I am sure you are the one to lead
I am sure you are the one to lead

Linda,
 You are one of the sweetest kids I know. Remember Physics class and all those crazy experiments like going out on the roof and wurling balls around our heads. Don't forget Red Feather and our thrilling marching. Lots of luck always and ever after that.
 Love
 Jane Kelley

Best of Luck to a real sweet kid

Linda,
 You are one of the finest people I know. It has been great knowing you and I hope I will continue to see you.
 Best of luck.

Linda
 I was with all my friends at the bit and I want to know it and I can say how happy I am. So keep your standards high.
 Best of luck

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million (1990–1999) (Department of Health 2000).

There is a growing emphasis on the importance of the public sector in the provision of health care services, and the need to ensure that the public sector is able to meet the needs of the population. This has led to a number of initiatives aimed at improving the efficiency and effectiveness of the public sector, including the introduction of the Health Service Act 1999 and the establishment of the National Health Service Commissioning Board (NHSCB).

The NHSCB is responsible for commissioning health services, and is expected to play a key role in ensuring that the public sector is able to meet the needs of the population. This paper examines the role of the NHSCB in the provision of health services, and discusses the challenges it faces in ensuring that the public sector is able to meet the needs of the population.

The paper is organized as follows. Section 2 discusses the role of the NHSCB in the provision of health services. Section 3 discusses the challenges the NHSCB faces in ensuring that the public sector is able to meet the needs of the population. Section 4 discusses the implications of the findings for policy and practice. Section 5 concludes the paper.

2. Role of the NHSCB

The NHSCB is responsible for commissioning health services, and is expected to play a key role in ensuring that the public sector is able to meet the needs of the population. This section discusses the role of the NHSCB in the provision of health services, and the challenges it faces in ensuring that the public sector is able to meet the needs of the population.
